With ideal solfing weather and before one of the largest crowds of the week, the annual fall tournament of the Bannockburn Golf Club came to a grand close yesterday afternoon, and Dr. Thomas J. W. Brown, chairman of of Thomas J. W. Brown, chairman of the tournament committee, deserves nuch credit for the splendid way in which it was carried off.

One of the best matches of the day ame in the final round of the first sixeen, when Eddie P. Brooke, of Bancekburn, defeated Eddie B. Bynon, ir., of Columbia, by his splendid putting, he score being 2 up and 1 to play. With an eight-foot putt, Mr. Brooke won the first hole, and Mr. Eynon came sack and won the third by a stymic fir. Eynon was 2 up at the turn. At he tenth hole Mr. Eynon played from 1 bad lie his ball being in two inches if mud, and landed nicely on the green, he hole being halved.

Mr. Brooke's card follows:

and 6 to play.

In the morning round of the third sixbein, George E. Tructi struck a streak
f bad luck coming in, and lost to Dan
i. Jackson, of Columbia, by 4 and 3 in the final round Mr. Jackson took W.
Knowles, of Bannockburn, who decated S. P. Thompson, of Columbia, in Thomas Francis, Dr. W. R. King, and
